

Mission

The mission of the National Conference of State Liquor Administrators is to educate and serve the needs of its members, through open communication, in furtherance of effective alcohol policies within our communities and nation.

Philosophy

The philosophy of the National Conference of State Liquor Administrators is to promote meaningful and enlightened communication among its members for the creation and maintenance of effective systems of beverage alcohol regulation in service of the public interest.